At the Gamescom we showed our family poster in monster size.
Exact double-A0. (about 1.60 x 1.20 m).

We were asked at the Gamescom very often whether it is possible to buy this poster.

In theory no problem. Only thing is, we have no way to ship such a huge poster.

A proposal from some trade fair visitors was, that someone could collect the orders and then take the poster to Neuss, where the buyers can pick them up.

After a call at a1k.org, we decided to make a collective order.
(ATTENTION! The posters have to be collected at the Amiga32 in Neuss!)

The exact sequence:

- * A poster would cost 25, - Euro
- * Order and payment at the end of September directly by e-mail Andreas@apc-tcp.de with the subject "Poster"
- * Pick them up on the Amiga 32.
- * Attention: The posters have no packaging. So either take your own packaging with you or place posters right in your own car.
- * !!! Posters, which are not picked up, will not be sent back. Also not folded.
