

DigiRoller 1.2

DigiBooster Support -> DigiRoller 1.2

krashan

#1/1 Posted: 23.09.2014 - 17:53 Post subject:

Disabling a track in DigiBooster only affects playback, it is not saved in a module. To have tracks disabled permanently, one has to delete contents of these tracks in the editor, then save a copy of the module. Future versions of DigiBooster 3 will also have a feature of exporting tracks to separate files, or one multichannel file.